bungee jumping / farming / hiking / jet-boating / looking for / parasailing skiing / skydiving
In the past, Queenstown was a small (1) area.
It became rich in the mid-nineteenth century when people went there
(2) gold. However, most of these people soon left. Later, tourists went to the area because of its natural beauty. They went (3) in the summer and (4) in the winter. Today visitors can do more exciting sports, like (5)in the Shotover Jet or (6) from the Kawarau Bridge. They can also go (7) on the lake or (8) from a plane. In recent years Queenstown has become the adventure sports capital of the world.
